men who travel extensively at their own man who has reached that degree of prosperity where he can afford to wear a beard; trousers are hopelessly extravagant if he pay more than one-half fare after crossing the Mississippi river. I once heard a popular actor give his reasons for this assertion in a public hall. He said, "I cannot afford to enlighten his audience with an assertion on the almost utter worthlessness of money in the west, so far railroad traveling was concerned, he continued."

"Take any train on any road west of St. Louis," said the speaker, "and you will find a conductor of indifference and smoke a cigar. Your conductor be sedely looking, wearing a beard, an old uniform with greasy elbows and a hopeless expression on his face, pay your fare. He is no honest man. A thousand dollars wouldn't tempt him, and you are out at least a whole stack of dollars for getting on the train. Had you waited for the next day the things would have been different. Perhaps you had a prosperous looking fellow, who spent his last hour before leaving time in a barber's chair and wash, and for his uniform, would pass himself off as a drummer or even a banker. He looks as well fed and as well groomed as a king, and you need have no fear at all he will decline your invitation to ride free, but for his uniform, would pass himself off as a drummer or even a banker. THE SETTLE-HOLT MARRIAGE

THE OLD SETTLE HOME A MERRY SCENE LAST NIGHT.

Consummation of a Social Event One of the Most Brilliant and Interesting of the Season.

The old Settle home, now the residence of Dr. and Mrs. W. P. Beall, was last night the scene of one of the most beautiful marriages ever witnessed in Greensboro.

The social event has for weeks past been anticipated, as one of the most brilliant and interesting occasions of the season.

The bride, Miss Julia Settle, is the youngest daughter of the late Judge Thomas Settle, and a sister of Ex-Congressman Thomas Settle and is one of the most beautiful and attractive young ladies in the state. She has a large circle of acquaintances and is unusually popular.

The groom, Mr. Ernest A. Holt, is the youngest son of the late James Holt, of Burlington, and nephew of Gov. Thomas Holt, and richly deserves his very widespread popularity. The bride was handsomely attired in white satin, lace and diamonds and carried a magnificent bouquet of white roses and lilies. She entered the room on the arm of her brother, Hon. Thomas Settle, having been preceded by the groom and his brother, Robert Holt. The sister of the groom, Miss Daisy Holt, exquisitely robed in white organza and diamonds, and carrying a lovely bouquet of pink roses, acted as maid of honor.

The marriage ceremony was performed by Rev. J. D. Miller, pastor of St. Andrew's Episcopal church. The rooms were tastefully decorated in similar, white and pink roses, bamboo, ivy and palms, and were filled to overflowing with relatives and friends of the two families.

Dr. and Mrs. Beall were ideal host and hostess, and the wedding supper was a veritable feast of good things. The decorations of the dining room were unusually tasteful and lovely. The presents were numerous, elegant and useful.

The wedding march was played by the Greensboro orchestra, assisted by Miss Fugh. Mr. and Mrs. Holt left on the vestibule for an extended trip to the North-east cities.

THE DATE FIXED

For the Meeting of the North Carolina Press Convention.

The Telegram man saw Editor J. B. Whitaker, of the Winston Sentinel last evening. Mr. Whitaker has just returned from New Orleans, where he attended the Mardi Gras and also the National Editorial Association's meeting. While there the executive committee of the North Carolina Association, several of whom were delegates, got together and fixed the date for the meeting of the convention in Hendersonville, for June 13th and 14th.

After a thorough canvass of the dates thus far announced for political conventions, it was decided upon as the best time to hold the convention so as not to conflict with other meetings the editors will want to attend. Hendersonville will royally entertain the newspaper men. It has excellent hotel accommodations and reduced rates will be arranged for. In due time the brethren will hear from Secretary Sherrill in reference to preparations for the meeting.

Think It Will Stand.

An attorney who was in Raleigh when the dispensary case was argued, but who did not appear on either side and had no interest in it whatsoever, tells the reporter that it is the consensus of opinion among disinterested lawyers who heard the argument on both sides that the dispensary will stand.

Miss Amanda Nelson Dead.

Miss Amanda Nelson, an aunt of John J. Nelson, died at the residence of the latter, corner Eugene and Sycamore streets, early this morning, aged 87 years. She has been in feeble health for some time and her death was not unexpected. The funeral will be conducted from the home tomorrow at eleven o'clock, by Rev. Dr. Smith, and interment made in Green Hill cemetery.

Pay Your City Taxes.

If your taxes are not paid on or before March 31, 1900, I will be compelled to advertise and sell property to satisfy the amount of taxes due on the property. As the city is in pressing need of the money, and the taxes must be paid by that time, according to the city charter.

R. M. Reese, City Collector.

New Ads Today.

The big new ad of the big furniture dealer, is worth your attention. Read it.

If your mother-in-law can't find fault with it, it is all right. See ad of Gate City Steam Laundry.

If there ever was a time when cement coats were in demand, it is in weather like this. Raskin, Chisholm, Stroud & Reese tell you about such thing in their new ad today.

BRIEF LOCAL MATTERS.

A professional high still walker, Fred Rook, of Pittsburgh, is doing the "jay act" advertising the Greensboro Steam Laundry. He went to Raleigh at noon today.

The Cornell University baseball team will play the University of North Carolina at Raleigh, April 2, and Trinity college, at Durham, April 3.

Parties coming from Raleigh on the noon train say that the sun was shining brightly in that city when they left, and that no signs of snow or bad weather was not discovered until after they had passed University Station.

An item about a negro who was trying to make trouble a few nights ago, should have read "Dennis Mitchell" instead of "Dennis Yancy." The negro formerly worked for Yancy and is sometimes called by that name.

Appreciated.

The Telegram appreciates the many words of encouragement it is receiving from the people of the town orally. Mail also bring words of encouragement. For instance, one or two extracts:

From a former citizen of Greensboro now in another state: "I was delighted when I saw an account of the re-organization of the Telegram company. * * * There has been decided improvement in the Telegram. * * * the chance * * * to make a powerful journal in North Carolina."

This is from one of the State's most distinguished citizens. "We have a 'money-back' democrat for addressing a stranger. Allow me to congratulate you on your editorial of the * * *. We need more such editorials in North Carolina to keep our patriotism warm and bright * * *. Let us remember that we are Anglo-Saxons and white men. Our duty is plain; our destiny conspicuous."

This is from a gentleman who lives in an adjacent town, and travels in every look and corner in North Carolina: "Last Saturday's Telegram was the finest paper that ever left Greensboro. * * * are making it go right along. If you keep this gait you will be obliged to bloom into a morning paper in less than six months."

The Check Raiser Caught.

Albert Ryan, whose attempt at check raising from five to twenty-five dollars was told in this paper Tuesday, was captured and brought to this city last night. After a preliminary trial he was committed to jail. Deputy Sheriff Weatherly carried him up to Winston this afternoon.

At Foot of Calendar.

The case of the state against E. G. Newcombe, in the supreme court on appeal by defendant, has been moved down to the foot of the calendar by reason of a failure to have the record printed in due time. It was brought in at the time set for argument, but the attorney general asked for time on the ground that he had not had an opportunity to examine the printed record. It will likely be several weeks before the case is argued.

A New Business.

The Kirkman Bedding Supply Company has opened an establishment on the building on South Davis street for the wholesale and retail of mattresses of every description, cots, spring beds, feather beds, etc. They will keep in stock and manufacture here, mattresses of every description. Mr. Marion Mont gomery, of Greensboro, who has been in high point for some time, is manager of the business. They are in the McAdoo building.

Rough on the Stock.

The force of hands erecting the Postal Telegraph lines have established a camp out Church street beyond the Judge Dick place. They have ten or a dozen horses and mules, and a friend of "your dumb animals," who believes there should be a society here for the prevention of the same, alleges that those horses and mules are unprotected from this blizzard weather by any sort of covering or shelter. That is cruel and should not be allowed. If there is no means to prevent it, a way should be made to prevent it, and it should be enforced.

Nasonic.

There will be a regular communication of Greensboro Lodge No. 78, F. and A. M. tonight. Work in first degree. Visitors cordially welcomed.

is where we stand in the lumber business. At the kicking post, as it were, in regard to prices.

First comes the owner of the timber. He just woke up to the value of it and wants double last year's prices. Then the sawmill man. He has not been making a fortune and thinks now he should share a little in the general prosperity.

They say to us: "We must have so much for our trees and work." After a while it is "up to you." Don't kick. You don't suppose we have nerve enough to put up prices unless they had first been put up on us. No, indeed. But prices are NOT high. They have been to low and are just now getting reasonable. Your children will be glad to build at double the price it now costs you. It is a little, but true saying, if you want to build, "Now is the time."
